

QTS OVERLAND PARK

The QTS Overland Park Data Center is not only the corporate headquarters of QTS, but was also the catalyst for the national data center portfolio. The two story building has 33,000 square feet of enclosed space, which includes data center space, customer and QTS offices and common areas.

Building Specifications

- 33,000 sq. ft. facility
- 2,500 sq. ft. of data center space
- Customer office and conference space available

Power

- Configuration Options: 2N to generator, single power feed
- 0.18MW of critical power capacity
- 2 UPS units
- 2 generators
- 500 gallon of fuel on site
- Power Dual feed, single grid power from Kansas City Power & Light

Cooling

- 4 Leibert CRAC's (two 22-ton, two 15-ton)
- Temperature, humidity and leak sensors
- Fully automated Building Management System providing remote indications and operations capabilities

Network Providers

- AT&T
- Consolidated Communications
- Level 3

Security

- External card key access
- Dual authentication to computer rooms
- Card key access in all internal areas
- Fixed and pan-tilt-zoom cameras covering property and entry points

Compliance

- SOC 1
- SOC 2 - HIPAA
- ISO 27001
- SOC 2
- PCI
- HITRUST

QUICK FACTS

- Chairman and CEO Chad Williams purchased the J. Williams Technology Center in 2003
- Overland Park serves as the QTS corporate headquarters and is home base for the company's legal, financial, human resources and marketing divisions
- This facility includes Class A office space in addition to the data center

